

WEBSITE CONTENT

6. Volunteer Insurance

At a minimum, volunteer involving organisations must carry valid public liability insurance, volunteer accident insurance in order to protect themselves against third party personal injury or damage to property claims, as well as accidental injury or death, resulting from a volunteer undertaking an authorised volunteer activity.

The Centre for Volunteering strongly recommends that volunteer involving organisations seek professional advice to understand the types of insurance that are available and those which may be most appropriate for their needs.

Disclaimer

The information contained herein, is intended to help ensure that you have some basic knowledge of insurance as it relates to volunteer involving organisations. The Centre for Volunteering is not responsible for any damages, losses or causes of action of any nature arising from volunteering involving organisations acting on the information provided. VIOs should seek independent professional advice from their insurance provider.