And many more!

About us

The Centre for Volunteering is a not-for-profit organisation which connects and promotes volunteers and volunteer involving organisations (VIOs), to help strengthen communities.

Volunteer Referral Service

Our referral service advertises for, recruits, interviews and refers volunteers to volunteer involving organisations based on their skills, and suitability, saving the precious time and resources of both our members and their volunteers.

School of Volunteer Management (RTO no. 90031)

The Centre offers nationally recognised vocational qualifications in volunteering and volunteer program coordination – from Certificate I to Certificate IV. We offer professional development courses and workshops for individuals and organisations covering key aspects of volunteer management such as implementing the National Standards for Volunteer Involvement, communication and legal issues related to managing volunteers.
