About Our Membership

The Centre for Volunteering is the peak body for volunteering in NSW. We promote and support volunteering and community participation.

The Centre for Volunteering includes Volunteering NSW, a state-wide volunteer referral service, and the National School of Volunteer Management (RTO code 90031), a registered training organisation providing professional development and nationally accredited volunteering qualifications.

The Centre for Volunteering is a not-for-profit organisation with over 50 years' history.

We provide leadership on volunteering issues and connect people and organisations to enrich the community through advocacy, volunteer referral, volunteer recognition, training, resource development, as well as information and education services.

We work for the volunteering sector and volunteer-involving organisations, to enhance volunteering, to benefit individual volunteers, and to build strong resilient connected communities through volunteering.
